MISS TENNESSEE'S,

THE WONDERFUL CHILD
MAGNETIC LIFE ELIXIR

CLEANSING THE BLOOD

AND

Beautifying the Complexion.

The great success this Elixir has met with induced me to put it before the public, and all I ask is to give it a fair trial, and it will then recommend itself. It will remove all
DARK SPOTS, MOLES, IMPLES,
ANY ERUPTION UPON THE FACE
OR BODY,

and will give the complexion a clear and healthy color, and it directions are properly followed the skin will become almost transparent.

The properties of this Elixir are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, and have a Wonderful Effect upon the Liver.
And cleansing the system of all other impurities, and restore a person to PERFECT HEALTH!

The properties and composition of this Elixir were made known to me when a child and in a Chiropractic state, since which I have made constant use of it in my practice,
and from the great success I have had in its use for the last 11 years, thought proper to bring it before the public.

persons, dead or alive, and through her will tell inquiring friends their situation and whereabouts. The will guarantee to make perma-

The news from Washington is startling and revolutionary in every aspect. The radical reconstructionists of Congress seem to act and feel as if something should be done, and that quickly; but they do not know and cannot agree among themselves as to the particular points of that "something," and it is hoped they never will for our good and theirs too. They have met in caucus and commenced their innovations and blusterings. It is said that they have abandoned the impeachment proposition and had no one of such an act, simply because there were too many sensible men in congress to be guilty of such a foolish and treasonable act. We predict that in less than one year the Jacobins will be repudiated by the republican party, and that constitutional conservatism will rule its action. Very many of the leaders of that great northern party are disgusted with such fellows as Thad. Stevens, and will, in time return him to the bosom of his family and the private walks of life, but it is necessary that such men should wear themselves out with the people. Since the President has determined not to abandon his notions on reconstruction, the people may rest easy, at least as long as he is the Executive and stands firm by his principles.

The Radicals in caucus at Washington, propose to abolish the State governments at the South, as organized at present, on the ground that they are unconstitutional, and will appoint a commissioner for each State who shall have power to appoint the civil and military officers necessary for the promotion of peace and good order.

These commissioners will be authorized to call conventions for the purpose of forming constitutions, &c.; but the caucuses have got into a squabble as to who should do the voting—and there is the rub—the niggers or who. If the whites vote their constitutions will not be changed—if the niggers, they will have no assurance of a constitution of any kind.

The Thirty-ninth Congress met in Washington last Monday, and the President's message was read and ordered to be printed. The message is an able document in defense of the policy of restoration heretofore advocated by the President. The tone of the message is somewhat apologetic than otherwise, and the President seems to regret that the Constitution compels him to pursue the policy he started out with. He desires to conciliate his enemies, for the purpose of saving himself from an open collision with them, hoping doubtless, that their patriotism will lead them to the right. We believe he has abandoned all determined purposes to gain for the South a representation in the Houses. He is continuing only in a passive adherence to his former policy.

The Foreign policy of the government is in a desperate condition, and war with France and England is inevitable. We believe the differences between them could be settled easily, but the people of the North are mad yet, and are anxious for another fight. The fighting portion desire war for the purpose of satisfying their thirst for blood and revenge—the policy portion, believe, and we think correctly, too, that a foreign war would conciliate the North and South.

It is not known that the President favors a foreign war. The softened tone of his message indicates, however, a suspicion to that effect.

On Saturday night last Mr. Davis, one of the proprietors of the Maysville Eagle, became involved in a difficulty with Newell, one of its employees, which resulted in Newell firing from the door at Davis while he was sitting in the McKrell House. Mr. Davis, upon going to the door, fired two shots at Newell as he was disappearing. No one was hurt. At an examination Davis was acquitted and Newell was bound over.

Judge Advocate General Holt has been denied a court of enquiry into the charges against him regarding the prosecution of the Lincoln assassins, the President deeming it unnecessary to his vindication.

IMPORTANT SALE OF TOWN LOTS.—At the last term of the Harrison Circuit court, a judgment was rendered in the case of C. Walton, Trustee, vs Wm. Snodgrass and others, directing the commissioner, M. L. Broadwell to sell the vacant lot on the South side of Pike street in this city. This lot is on the second if not the first great thoroughfare of the city; is about equal distant from the railroad and Main St., and the public square. It fronts on Pike street 210 feet and runs back 140 feet. It will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, ranging in size from 20 to 50 feet front. No more desirable lots are to be had in the city, in fact there are none in the city half so desirable for persons who may wish to combine business houses and dwelling. We would advise all who wish to invest in town property, or who want a good lot and a good stand for business to be on hand at the sale. The sale will take place at the Court House door on next Monday at 11 o'clock A. M.

A SELMA HOUSE.—We copy from the Selma Ala., "Daily Times" the following editorial notice of a firm whose advertisement may be found in the NEWS. Any of our people having business or seeking business or trade in that region, cannot do better than apply to Rosser & Morey, who, having been gallant soldiers, are now as energetic and faithful in their commercial transactions as they were in their relations to the "lost cause."

A BUSY HOUSE.—Notwithstanding the fact that Messrs. Rosser & Morey are constantly filling orders and making heavy shipments, they manage to keep at all times, a store filled with a complete assortment of groceries. They keep everything in their line of business, and have never been known to have any but the very best. Retail dealers, heads of families, planters, and all others, can be fitted out by them at any time. Bacon, Coffee, Sugar, Flour of all brands, Butter, Lard, Tobacco, and a thousand and one other things can be found there.

P. O. B. Duke, the outlaw from Mt. Sterling, was arrested recently in Maysville by Col. True, and has been sent to General Davis, at Louisville, who has delivered him to the civil authorities.

A gentleman from Mt. Sterling who visited our office yesterday, asserts that Duke is not a cousin of General Basil Duke.

The Methodist Brethren of this County are making an effort to raise money to build a new and elegant Church in Cynthiana. We were shown one paper which had been in circulation but a few hours, with two hundred dollars subscribed. We hope the effort may prove a success.

J. H. Carter, at the Post office, is paying the highest price for all kinds of Furs.

John C. Breckinridge is petitioning for pardon, and claims that the general terms of surrender awarded to Lee and Johnson included him.

From the Hawesville Messenger. Who will be the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky in 1867?

This question is frequently asked by the people and pretty freely discussed by the friends of different gentlemen who are supposed to be indicated by public sentiment as likely to be candidates for the office.

We have received numerous letters urging the claims of their friends for the nomination; but have carefully avoided indicating any preference amongst them. We really have none at all between those spoken of in connection with the office. We could not make a bad selection amongst them; yet, without becoming the advocate of his claims, we may simply state the fact that a large majority of those with whom we have interchanged sentiments have indicated Governor Helm, of Harlan county, as their preference.

We are not astonished at this. Gov. Helm is one of the best specimens of an old fashioned Kentucky gentleman, now occupying a public position in the State, and yet he is fully up with the spirit and progress of the age. He has always been the friend and patron of the various public improvements in the country.

He is a sound statesman and a man of firmness and decision of character. Kentucky is nearly the only purely Democratic State in the Union, and she ought to have a representative man for Governor. Whether Gov. Helm will fill the demand or not, we cheerfully leave to the judgment of the Convention when it shall meet. We may add that our intercourse with the people of Southwest Kentucky has led us to think he is the favorite of that part of Kentucky.

If made Governor, we think no Kentuckian will have occasion to blush for their Chief Magistrate.

Fen and Scissors.

The Democratic party in Kentucky must remember that the great, supreme object to be attained now is the restoration of the Southern States to all the rights and privileges of the other States; and that the only hope of redeeming the Federal Government is by State action. As in the past, so now, we must obtain possession of the States before we can hope for anything from the General Government.—Lexington Observer and Reporter.

A Colorado paper says that recently some miners were working at the bottom of a shaft in Calaveras, Cal., when one of them, enclosed with his pick an orifice through which flames might be distinctly seen. Turning around and throwing down his pick, he remarked to his chums, "It's no use to go any further, boys, we've struck lightning."

REVIVAL.—The Owensboro Shield says that Rev. C. T. Widney, of Owensboro circuit, has been carrying on a protracted meeting at Oakford, Daviess county, for some two weeks, and thirty-eight have made profession of religion; and thirty have joined the Methodist church, others the Cumberland and Baptist churches. The meeting is still progressing.

Boston, Dec. 3.—The Fenian Brotherhood here is numbered by thousands, regularly organized, and having full equipments for infantry, cavalry, and artillery. The discipline they have undergone during the past six months have made them fit for soldiers, and they are steady to go on the war path as soon as the order is ready.

We take the following from the Lexington Gazette:

A MIRACLE OR A MYSTERY.—Every one remembers the miracle at the feast of Cana, where many jars of water were turned into wine for the entertainment of the wedding guests.—Something of this kind has happened recently at Payne's Depot, on the Louisville and Lexington Railroad, only liquor was turned into water. It seems that a distiller had placed 100 barrels of whiskey in the warehouse at that place in storage, when it was inspected and remained several months. Upon a re examination the whisky was found to have turned into water, all the alcohol having been mysteriously supplanted by the more innocent beverage.—All inquiries have failed to solve the mystery, and we are forced to think it miraculous.

FIRE IN SELMA, ALA.—A destructive fire occurred in Selma, on the night of Sunday, the 25th ult. Every building on the north side of Water street, between Washington and Broad, was burned, and all on the east side of Broad, between Linton's alley and Water street, except the building occupied by Miree & Johnson, Woodruff & Duncan, and the Selma Messenger. The following summary of losses is given by the Messenger: On Bond street, J. S. Keipp, $1,500; Miree & Johnson, —; Judson & Duncan, $60,000; Burditt, Martin & Swan, $125,000; the Government, $4,000; Bowen & Hooper, $12,000; A. L. Haden, $15,000; J. M. Parkman, $20,000; Dr. Prestridge, $5,000.

On Water street, J. J. Thomson, auctioneer, $1,000; Myre Harris, family groceries, $2,000; — Kenton, $2,500; Robert Hall, house, $10,000. The exertions of the military and civil officers of the U. S. Government stationed at Selma, are highly commended, although they were personally uninterested.

HOG MARKETS.—The hog market is quiet and some what dull, owing chiefly to the unfavorable weather. Louisville prices are as follows: Light 5½¢; heavy (200 lbs.) 6¢. Cincinnati quotations are 6¢; heavy (200 lbs.) The receipts promise to be large in both Cincinnati and Louisville, but there are so many packers now at work that the demand will be equal to the supply. Several farmers who had intended to ship to New York have determined to sell nearer home, the decline there and advance here making better markets at Cincinnati or Louisville.

Thus far, 23,598 head have been killed in Louisville, and 99,027 in Cincinnati. There are a number of buyers in this city who will pay as high a price as the markets elsewhere will justify.—Lexington Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The House has just repealed the 13th section of the amnesty act authorizing the President to grant pardons, by a vote of 111 to 28. The vote is a fair indication of the tone and strength of parties in the present Congress.

A bill has just been introduced in the House taking from the President all appointments of revenue officers and giving the appointing power to Chief Justice Chase.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.—An negro named Sam. Cooper, with other rogues, entered an African church at Hamilton, Ohio, last Sunday night, and commenced railing at the preacher and congregation. A row resulted, during which Cooper was stabbed in the breast and instantly killed.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Our friend D. A. Givens has an extraordinarily large and well assorted stock of dry goods, cloaks, furs, and custom made boots and shoes. He also has a full assortment of gray jeans and stocking yarns. Mr. Givens is one of our most enterprising and thorough-going merchants, attends strictly to his business, and is always alive to the interests of his customers. You can at all times rely on fair and honorable dealing at his establishment.

Shawhan & Wilhite are erecting a large Stable on Walnut street.

Not a few of our side walks are in a desperate condition. They need the attention of the city council, or "some other man."

Jno. H. Dills, of this county, sold on Monday last, Thirty Berkshire hogs weighing 351 pounds each. They were certainly a fine lot of Hogs.

Congress has passed an act, taking from the President the Pardoning Power. So ends the first lesson.

A large Democratic meeting has been held in Fleming county and appropriate resolutions adopted, with a recommendation of Hon. R. H. Stanton, for Governor. We will publish the proceedings next week.

The Democracy of Campbell county, held a meeting last Monday and appointed delegates to the February State Convention. They recommend John W. Stevenson for Governor.

Joseph Cantril, of Scott county, took to Cincinnati six hundred head of fat hogs, last week, and instead of selling, has gone into the packing business.

The "Jefferson Hotel," of Falmouth, kept by Geo. C. Lightfoot, is one of the best houses in Kentucky. Travellers will find themselves well treated, well fed and lightly charged while sojourning at the Jefferson.

THE MULE MARKET.—Over 1000 head of mules have been sold within the last week, in Bourbon, Fayette, and Harrison counties; three year olds are selling at from $130 to $180 per head; 2 year olds from $80 to $125; colts from thirty to seventy-five dollars.

BOURBON COUNTY COURT-DAY.—The sales of stock made were higher than at any time within the last 60 days. About 500 head of cattle exchanged hands at from four dollars and seventy-five cents to three dollars and fifty cents. 300 mules exchanged hands at high prices.

Falmouth is a thriving little city, with an enterprising and industrious class of citizens, who are among the most peaceful and law-abiding of our State. Dr. Barber has just finished a new dwelling, and several gentlemen have put up new houses during the past season.

The Suspension Bridge at Falmouth, which crosses Main Licking River at that place, was condemned and sold some weeks since. The company have posted the bridge as too dangerous for passing. Mr. Oldham has just launched a ferry-boat, and can accommodate all who desire to cross.

A large amount of hogs are being shipped from this place. We understand that some fifty cars loads per day go down to the Cincinnati market. Cynthiana has presented a very hoggish appearance lately, and as yet, we are unable to observe any change.

On Tuesday last hogs were sold for five dollars and forty cents per hundred, in this place. They are now held at five dollars but few sales are made.

During the month of November P. Wherritt, Clerk of County Court issued ten marriage licenses from his office. The freedmen have gone far ahead of all others in the license business—in fact so many that we failed to enumerate them:

Elijah McKinney to Miss Martha Jane Smith.
Simon Schmidt to Miss Mary Strauss.
James T. Howell to Miss Maggy T. Martin.

G. L. Traux to Lucinda Sallars.
Joel H. Yarnal to Nancy S. Munson.
Abram K. Lair to Susan F. Dungan.
Geo. Rhorer to Miss Mary Eliza Coons.

F. G. Craig and Jane C. Sparks.
Thomas J. McCormick to Lidia Bell.
Nathan C. Marsh to Elizabeth J. Ziler.

Mr. Hoobinger, of Falmouth, owns a farm on King-Cade creek, where he has been boring for oil, and last week found plenty to his satisfaction. We understand he will realize a large fortune.

On Sunday last two colored people, named Alex. Tunlinson and Ben. Broadwell had a difficulty on Walnut street, and Alex. being more pugnacious than Ben drew a pistol and was about to fire upon him, when Ben caught his arm the cap exploded and the bullet passed into the air. The affray was then brought to a close, and Alex made an appropriation to the city authorities, by and with the advice of the Mayor. Business in the Mayor's office is very brisk, we understand.

Rev. Mr. Deering and Noland have been holding a very interesting revival at the Methodist Church in this city, during the past week. Quite a number of young gentlemen and ladies have taken membership at that church. We understand that the meeting will be continued.

Elder Lard, one among the most eloquent pulpit orators of the Christian Church, commenced preaching in this place on last Sunday. Large and interesting audiences go to hear him every night. We understand that several have joined that church. We hope he will be instrumental in doing much good.

Jno. R. Robbins, of Falmouth, Pendleton county, is the proprietor of the best drug store in that place, and is doing a thriving business. He is also post master, and in good standing as such.

For the Cynthiana News.
"A PIKE."

What! Does "Claysville" want a pike? It seems to me Mr. Morey that I read in your "valuable paper," some time since, an allusion to that effect.

I resolved then and there that if time, and pressing engagements should permit, I would favor the public with my own sentiments on that important subject. That "remorseless" individual however who is said to wait for no man, gave me not the slightest opportunity to fulfill this laudable intention until this hour—eight o'clock p. m. November 27th 1866; and that same evening to good intentions, would doubtless have rendered me utterly oblivious of the public weal, as connected with turnpikes had I not been roused to the importance of the subject by seeing a travel-worn man, who had in three days accomplished a journey of forty miles. That he had traveled on no labor-saving, time-saving pike, was evident, not only from the length of time occupied, but from his mud-be-spattered coat, and even hat, his boots which seemed made of mud, and his horse, which was of like material. No. It was the good old fashioned unimproved mud road, where hill follows quick upon hill, where huge rocks seem to vie with each other, in their special aptitude for being in the way, and where hills and rocks are rendered more wearisome, and perplexing, by unfailing, all prevailing mud.

"Poor man!" says some ease-loving individual. "Poor!" indeed! Rather say "heroic man," for if our heroism is in proportion to the difficulties we surmount, as people say it is, then is this man a very Herculean. Shall the indomitable courage, and perseverance, which are necessarily promoted by such a road be discouraged and condemned by that accessory to indolence, that enemy to moral courage, a pike? Never. Intelligent men of Harrison, never suffer yourselves to be led into the folly of making another pike. Though you may, in patronizing that ancient institution the "dirt road," be compelled to spend precious time which you would fain employ otherwise, in climbing hills which seem made of huge fragments of rocks, yet will you not, as your hope of speedy traveling diminishes be led to reflect on the fallacy of human hopes, and the necessity of patient perseverance? and is this discipline worth nothing. Will not your heart, even though it be as strong as the road you travel, glow with compassion for your fellow-beings, as you reflect on the faithful plodding which during long years, has worn that channel, fully wide enough for a single horse to pass through, which channel is dignified by the name of road.

What though you do plunge through mud, which seems ready at every moment to engulf both rider and horse in its misery depths? Will not the firm determination which enables you to overcome this obstacle, strengthen your patient soul, to dare yet deeper mud-holes, yet steeper, longer hills?

If your horse should become so deeply sunk in the bottomless mud as to find it impossible to extricate himself will not sympathizing people, if by bawling till you are hoarse, you can make yourself heard, run to your assistance, and prize and push and pull till the faithful animal is taken out, either dead or alive? Do those people derive no benefit from this opportunity to do good, and from the additional privilege of kindly sticking fence-rails upright in the mud, like pins in a pin-cushion, as a warning to future travelers to go round and seek other mud-holes, in which to struggle, and plunge, and yell, and from which to be hauled?

But though mud-holes and hills are useful in their way, there is another feature belonging to all well-regulated roads, which must not be omitted—the creek—into which as often as we become tired of mud, the road conveniently runs—the creek, for the purpose of following whose beautiful windings, and delighting the traveler with whose melodious murmurings, roads have been known to run miles out of the right direction.

Perhaps some fault-finding individual exclaims against the danger of riding on a creek in frozen weather, or in it, when it is very deep. Pshaw! when it is frozen, your horse usually breaks through and is thus prevented from slipping down and breaking your neck. If it is deep—swim, for it is to be hoped that no one ever attempts to travel such a road, without being able to swim, wade, climb, halloo, jump, slide, to travel without progressing, to seem to go and not advance, to move, yet stand still. It is this which develops the strong and great and good in one's mind; and it is the smooth pike, demanding no exertion, no self-denial, which renders people selfish, cowardly, weak.

Glorious mud road! Along whose tortuous windings, stage-coaches never appear, and buggies are unknown whose difficulties and dangers unite in one common bond of sympathy strangers and friends, rich and poor, humble and proud! Glorious road and lovely creek! Delightful combination of the useful and beautiful. Disturb not their harmonious relations. But if you do build a pike, leave the old road for the benefit of that large class of people who prefer it. Brown.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—Experiments were made to day with the Palliser shot and shell and Firth steel shell. One 9 inch Palliser shell, fired at a target 2,000 yards distance, composed of 8 inch armor plates and 1 inch teak backing. The shell went through the iron and teak, setting fire to the latter, causing more destruction at the back of the target than anything heretofore witnessed. Another series of experiments will be made next week.

For what reason does a fisherman drow his boat? For soft-fish reasons.

What are the features of a cannon?
Cannon's mouth, cannon-size and cannon-cannoners.

Why is an author a queer animal?
Because his tale comes out of his head.

Girls are like peaches—the nearer
they are ripe, the more they blush
and like peach-bruins, they are apt
to turn a reddish head.

A gentleman walking with two ladies
stopped on a four-head hoop, which flew up and struck him in the face. "Good gracious!" he exclaimed,
"which of you dropped that?"

The Louisville Democrat says: A bad as the Southern people are charged with having treated the negro, they have never on him to his mean a place as the Massachusetts legislature.

A lady whose husband has deserted herself: May two hundred thousand signatures not quiet her over his stomach every night. This probably would be a relief to what he has endured.

Wife (anxious): What did that young lady observe that passed us just now? Husband (with a smile of calm delight): Why, my love, she observed
a rather good looking man walking with quite an elderly female—that's all, Aunt!

A Paul Shell Baptist preached in Washington lately, and took for his text, "God made man in his own image." He commenced with the quotation, "An honest man is the noblest work of God," then pausing and looking searchingly about the audience, he exclaimed: "But God Almighty has not had a job in this city for night on to fifty year!"

Mr. Swinburne in his new book is always talking of scorching kisses.—
He says of one of his peculiar heroines:

"I dare not always touch her, lest the kiss
leave my lips charmed."

One of his critics suggests that there is a parallel to this in literature, in the case of the well known monkey, who

"I married the baboon's sister.
She smelt like him, and then he kissed her—kissed so hard he left a blister."
She set up a yell.

A well-primed lever of the bottle,
who had lost his way, recoiled into a tee-total grocery and hiccupped as follows:

"Mr. —, if ye keep a—anything—good to take—here?"
"Yes," replied the temperance shop keeper, "we keep excellent cold water—the best thing you could have."

"Well, I know it" was the reply;
"there is no—ne thing—that's done
so much for navigation—as that!"

FREE TO EVERYBODY!
THE GUIDE TO HEALTH AND BEAUTY.
[Just Published.]

IT teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles,
Pimples, Blemishes, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to clear the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French), causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or unnatural resting, it restores it to its original fullness, firmness, and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet, produce suppleness in the reverse, remove superfluous hair, cure cures, burnings, warts,
and moles; renew your age; cure dandruff,
eczema, catarrh, dyspepsia, Nervous debility,
etc., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. No young lady or gentleman should fail to send their address to the under-signed and receive by return mail a copy of this valuable work in sealed envelope free
of charge. Address:

ENAMEL.

(For improving and Beautifying the complexion.)

THE most valuable and perfect preparation in use, for giving the skin a beautiful pearl-like tint, that is only found in youth. It quickly removes tan, freckles, pimples, blotches, moth patches, sallowness,
eruptions, and all impurities of the skin,
kindly healing the same, leaving the skin white and clear as alabaster. Its use cannot be detected by the closest scrutiny, and being a vegetable preparation is perfectly harmless. It is the only article of the kind used by the French, and is considered by the Parisians as indispensable to a perfect toilet. Upwards of 30,000 bottles were sold during the past year—a sufficient guarantee of its efficacy. Price only 75 cents. Sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of an order by

SEWING MACHINES.
In connection with my Piano Forte agency
I have Wilcox & Gibbs' Twisted Loop Sewer Family Sewing Machine, which equals any other in efficiency, and far surpasses all others in the important particulars
of simplicity, durability, cheapness, noise-lessness, and beauty of motion. It has received the most marked commendations ever given any machine, no less than twenty-five first premiums during the fall of 1864;
besides the Gold Medal at the American Institute New York. It is just now being introduced into the West. I freely extend to it the same responsibility I exercise over my other business, which with my friends at least, will be sufficient guarantee for them to accept my choice of machines as their own and thus save themselves the exceeding perplexity of an extended investigation.
Sample machines can be seen at my music

Poland's magic bilious Powders
This preparation is the discovery of the Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly the pastor of the Baptist Church in Goffstown, N. H., and a man dearly beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is The Great Liver and Bilious Remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine and it calls for the warm approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Bilious Powders are a Positive Cure
for Liver complaint in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Bilious Derangements! Excellent for Headache, Constipation, Pimples, Blisters, A Swallow
Skin, Drowsiness, Dizziness, Heartburn, Flatulency, and almost wonderful Cures and preventive of Fever and Ague.

(We advise all who are troubled with this feared malady to always keep the Powders
on hand ready for immediate use.)
Here are a few important particulars—
1st.—They are the Great Specific for all Bilious Affections.
2d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.
3d.—They are the only known remedy that
will cure Dyspepsia.
4th.—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.
5th.—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effective cathartic known.
6th.—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the globe for the price, 50 cents.
Circulars, containing certificates, information, &c., sent to any part of the world free

COE'S

DYSPEPSIA CURE!
THIS great remedy for all Diseases of the STOMACH is the discovery of the inventor of Coe's valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his own health. It cured cramp in the Stomach for him which had before yielded to nothing but choleraform.

The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourage us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure.

Physicians endorse and Use it!
Ministers give testimony of its efficacy! And from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed. Dyspepsia is sure to en-hearten, one dose will cure! Sick-head ache—It has cured in hundreds of cases—Headache and Dizziness—It stops in thirty minutes! Acidity of the Stomach—It corrects at once! Rising of the food—It stops immediately. Distress after Eating—One dose will remove! Cholera Morbus—Rapidly yields to a few doses. Bad Breath—Will be changed with half a bottle.

It is Perfectly Harmless!
Its unprecedented success is owing to the fact that it cures by assisting nature to reassert her power in the system! Nearly ever dealer in the United States sells it at a

ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
